WALKING THE TALK: LIVING OUT OUR SENSE OF CALL

What does God require of you but to do justice, to love mercy,
to walk humbly with your God.
Micah 6:8

Leave your native land, your relatives, and your father's home and go to the country I am going to show you.
Genesis 12:1

April 13th: Sebastian Kong - Lost Boy to American Citizen

Sebastian will tell us the story of his life journey from his native land, Sudan, to this country and what he has experienced and learned here.

April 20th: Diane King - Spiritual Adventurer

Diane's Journeys of Inspiration Kilimanjaro Climb was a once in a lifetime event supporting the American Cancer Society's unique mission to fight cancer and bring hope and a celebration of life to those struggling with a difficult journey.

April 27th: Rev. Gordon Webster - Peacemaker

Gordon will have just returned from his journey to Neve Shalom/Wahat al-Salam the peace village in Israel where Israelis and Palestinians live in community.

May 4th: Lisa Larges, Minister Coordinator of That All May Freely Serve, (R)evolutionist

Surprise the church with Joy! Lisa will tell us about the New Church (R)evolution at June's national meeting of the Presbyterian Church USA.

May 11th: Windsor Asamoah-Wade - Teacher

Windsor is passionate about his students at Rochester's School Without Walls and the importance of the special mission of this school to the City School District.

May 18th: Kaye Lindauer - Story Teller
"Emily Dickinson's Wrestling Match with God."

Kaye has studied Emily Dickinson extensively. Her story telling skills are brought to this wonderfully profound poet and to God.

Note: Children pre-K and beyond can enjoy supervised service projects in Room C-23 during the Sunday Forum Hour.
